GERAINT WYN DAVIES HOSTS ORPHEUS CHOIR'S A CHILD'S CHRISTMAS IN WALES CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Tuesday, December 21st, 7:30 p.m. at Eglinton St George's United Church, the Orpheus Choir of Toronto presents A Child's Christmas in Wales with guest artist Geraint Wyn Davies. Fresh from playing Dylan Thomas at Stratford this summer Davies narrates Thomas's timeless story about Christmas seen through the eyes of a child, interspersed with favourite Christmas carols.

Artistic Director, Robert Cooper says: "Dylan Thomas' A Child's Christmas In Wales is about recreating that special heartwarming and magical atmosphere of Christmas. I am thrilled to have the superb Canadian actor and Stratford Festival star Geraint Wyn Davies, bringing his unique Welsh heritage and his outstanding dramatic flair to the narration of Thomas' festive and evocative story. This, along with a fresh and sparkling array of joyous carols, interspersed throughout the charming tale, makes for a delightfully enchanting evening of Christmas cheer...not to be missed."

A CHILD'S CHRISTMAS IN WALES is the second of five concerts in the Orpheus Choir of Toronto's 2010-2011 season.

Welcome the festive season with the Orpheus Choir of Toronto and guest artist Geraint Wyn Davies at this merry choral tapestry of Christmas favourites and delights!
