
GET IN THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT

ORPHEUS CHOIR and ALBERT SCHULTZ present A CANADIAN CHRISTMAS CAROL

The Orpheus Choir of Toronto presents a delicious holiday treat! Enjoy an evening of joyous carols, humorous stories and strikingly beautiful images all by Canadian artists, composers and authors that bring to life the sweet nostalgia of Christmas in this land of snow, skates and sleighs, narrated by Soulpepper Theatre's artistic director and actor, Albert Schultz.

The festivities take place on Tuesday, December 18 at 7:30 p.m. at Eglinton St. George's United Church, 35 Lytton Blvd.

"For some time I have wanted to explore our own seasonal traditions in words, songs and pictures" says Artistic Director Robert Cooper, "and have been overwhelmed by the wealth of expressions that celebrate our unique Canadian Christmas tradition. From the intimacy of northern life to the urban encounters of city life, our Christmas culture is a rich, touching, funny and imaginative lore of joyous experiences. "

Albert Schultz is an actor, director and Founding Artistic Director of Soulpepper Theatre Company and General Director of the Young Centre for the Performing Arts.

The Orpheus Choir's 2012/13 season is one of celebration, of choral music and of 10 seasons of choral innovation under the leadership of artistic director Robert Cooper. Board Chair and chorister Lynne Player says: "Singing under Bob's direction for the past 10 years has been inspiring. We continue to learn, improve, refine, enhance, and polish. His determination to strive for excellence never waivers...his energy is contagious. Bob has taken Orpheus to a new level and we look forward to the next 10 years under his excellent direction."

Tickets: $30, $25 for seniors, and $15 for students. Group Rates are available
